To Whom It May Concern:

I have been working with Leroy Ellington and The E-Funk Band for nearly eight years and have used them in nearly every situation in which you can use a band: private parties, corporate events, and festivals.

They have never been anything less than completely professional to work with. They are on time, appropriately behaved, and very entertaining. What's more, Leroy's attention to detail and sense of the client's needs makes the band a real pleasure to deal with.

I recommend them to you without reservation.

Sincerely,

Johnny Schott
